

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

A mass meeting of the unemployed will be held at the First Ward Socialist Hall this evening at 8 p. m.

$1,196,160 appropriated for streets for 1914.

Women jurors picked for 30 insanity cases at Detention Hospital.

Harry Thomas, 15, 5114 Champlain av., killed by L. S. & M. S. train at E. 74th st.

James S. Wilkerson, United States attorney, discovered that many theatrical booking agencies are recruiting stations for white slave agents. Will investigate.

Mrs. Vermilya, facing trial for poisoning Arthur Bissonette, paralyzed. Caused by self-administered poison.

Marino Scavone and Frank Guidara freed by coroner's jury. Were accused of murdering Michael Lapota, 2113 S. Clark st.

James McKinley arrested charged with framing "fake" prizefight. August Dichowski, 2643 Clybourn av., claims to have lost $3,000.

Thomas Bridgeman, policeman, stripped of star. Shot enemy in leg to scare him.

Council adopts plan for raising $5,000,000, also approves 3 police stations for women.

Albert C. Hague arrested at Edgerton, Wis., alleged member of gang that worked big land swindle here.

W. L. Moyer, former vice-president Lasalle St. National Bank, arrested. Alleged to have used mails to defraud.

Speck of radium, valued $4,500, lost at St. Luke's Hospital. Insurance investigators searching.

Otto Schefeldt suicided in Otto Schultz's planing mill. Schultz claims Schefeldt confessed setting fire to mill before shooting self. Police holding Schultz pending investigation.

S. R. Cameron, 24 W. Washington st., robbed of $250 merchandise during fire in building.

Case of Samuel Hossman, charged with setting fire to 6757 Cottage Grove av., continued until Jan. 29.

Question of sex hygiene teaching may be taken up by school board today.

Four ousted school trustees start legal contest. State's Atty. Hoyne will lend aid in suit.

400 men to be shifted by Chief Gleason Jan. 1. Capt. Chas. C. Healy to be traffic head.

Home of Mrs. Lipman Glick, 3663 S. Michigan av., raided. $2,500 booty taken. Family visiting.

Daylight burglars got $900 in valuables at home of Howard J. Sloan, 811 Sheridan Road.

Home of John W. Wolcott, 5616 Calumet av., entered. $400 worth of loot obtained.

Home of E. M. Samuel robbed. $200 worth of stuff taken.

Mrs. Alice Hawley obtained divorce from Charles G. Hawley. Granted $10,000 alimony.

Northwestern "L" has ordered 128 new coaches.

15,000 poorly addressed letters held at local postoffice.

Cafe owners ready for $1,000,000 New Year orgy. 500 extra policemen ordered into loop district.

Nine men and two women held for car thefts on Alton and Belt Line Railroads. $1,000 loot recovered.

John Z. White will speak on "Single Tax" at the Grace Church forum, 15th st. and Wabash av., Sunday evening, Jan. 4.

Prof. J. Howard Moore will address the Young Women's Suffrage Alliance on "Sex Hygiene" Friday, Jan. 2, at 8 p. m., at Hull House.

Samuel Swartz, Evanston, shot at wife twice. Missed her. Suicided.

American Sheet & Tin Plate Co., Gary, reopened. $1,500 men go back to work.

Employees of Dr. Fels & Co., 424 S. State st., freed of robbery charge. Fred Weinhold, 130 W. Chicago av.,